Live Internet Bidding

Live Internet Bidding...What's in it for Me?

We want you to have the best auction possible, which means taking your auction online with live Internet bidding technology. Adding live Internet bidding to your auction will allow you to reach a broader audience, generating more excitement and higher prices for your consignment.

We are proud to offer the best products and services available in the industry, which is why we have partnered with the leading provider of live Internet auctions. It is now possible to bring your auction into living rooms and board rooms across the globe. Our live Internet bidding capability ensures that more bidders than ever will take part in your auction.

By Webcasting your auction online you are guaranteed the best opportunity for a successful auction. When bidders are able to hear, see, and participate live online, they will get caught up in the excitement just as if they were at the live auction.

Why We Selected Proxibid

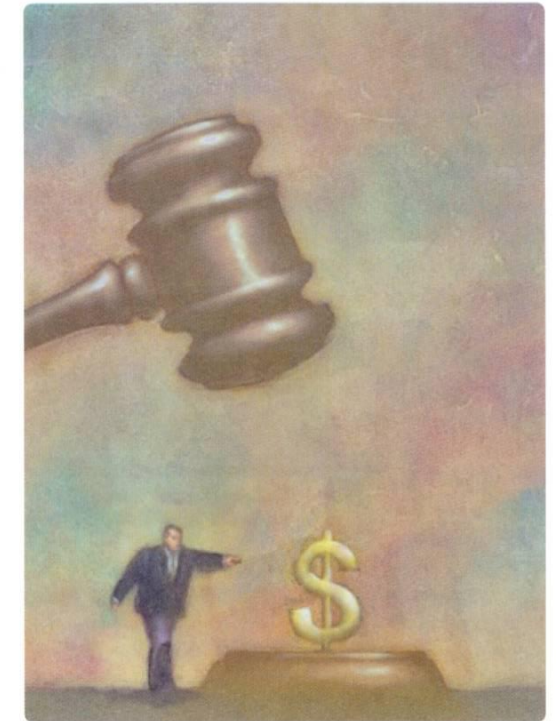

- ✓ Proxibid is committed to providing the auction industry with cutting-edge technology while continually assessing the wants and needs of auction companies, auctioneers and their customers.
- ✓ Proxibid is dedicated to providing the highest level of reliability, service and support to our clients.
- ✓ With more than 850 participating auction companies in the U.S., Canada, and Europe, Proxibid hosts more than 300 auctions each month. No one in the industry provides as many auctions per month with real-time Internet bidding.
- ✓ Proxibid sells items at auction to a larger, higher net worth bidder base, yielding higher prices than other live Internet bidding providers.
- ✓ Since 2002, Proxibid has Webcast more than 8000 auctions online.
- ✓ The Proxibid team has 125 years of combined auction experience.
- ✓ Since January, 2006, Proxibid online bidders have added more than $60+ million dollars in additional revenue by representing the second to the last bid -- or an average of more than $12,500 in additional revenue per auction.
